◆Neil Hubbard has been entertaining publicly on Great Highland Bagpipe since 1989. His years of experience playing to audiences from one person to many thousands have made him a seasoned, confident performer.

◆As a competitive soloist, piping judges have consistently praised him for his "great sounding pipe", "lovely, expressive playing" and "excellent tone and tuning". Neil is a successful piping competitor having played on the boards in Scotland, Canada, California, Oregon, and Washington.

◆A member of The Keith Highlanders Pipe Band since 1990, Neil has competed with them twice at the World Pipe Band Championships in Scotland. Neil has been featured as a soloist in their annual Kirkland Performance Center shows and has also participated with the band for many diverse celebrations: Carnival in Mazatlan, Mexico, the 1000th Anniversary of Clan Keith in Inverurie, Scotland, Fourth of July in Ketchikan, Alaska, and St. Patrick's Day in Seattle.

◆The majestic sound of the Great Highland Bagpipe has been used for centuries to inspire warriors, welcome royalty, mourn the dearly departed, celebrate weddings, and bring distinction to virtually any other event.

◆A piper always provides a striking visual focal point to any event and the powerful instrument adds evocative emotional impact.
